

From The President's Desk

Hon'ble Members and Friends

It is our great pleasure to welcome you to the 48th Annual Conference of the Association of Plastic Surgeons of India, APSICON 2013 to be held at Mumbai, India from 24th to 27th November 2013.

The APSICONS' have become one of the largest scientific conferences of Plastic Surgery. This being our association's most exciting event yearly it will bring together practitioners, researchers and educators from around the country and the world who are engaged in all aspects of Plastic Surgery. As have the other conferences in the past, this one too will be a true forum where academics as well as consultants from all around the country exchange their knowledge and experiences and thereby continue to build up and take ahead our "Plastic Surgery Community".

The theme of this event is "AUTHENTIC, BENEVOLENT and CONCEPTUAL" and we are looking forward to welcoming all delegates to share their experiences. Academic contributions by delegates and faculty will be in form of keynote lectures, plenary sessions, symposia, meet the professors, e posters, e papers and free papers. We welcome contributions from all relevant fields of plastic surgery. The contributions may be of disciplinary, multidisciplinary or inter-disciplinary character. We also welcome papers of conceptual, empirical and practical nature.

As in the past, this conference too has included a diversity of pre and post conference workshops and programs which include Women for Women Surgical Session, Endoscopic Skill Development Program, APSI 2005 – ETHICON Post-graduate instructional course, Prof. C R Sunderarajan Live surgery workshop, Microscopic Skill Development Program and the Cadaver Flap Dissection Course.

Over 800 delegates and faculty have already registered for the conference from all corners of the country and the world and we anticipate many more. Masters and key opinion leaders are committed to being here in Mumbai for APSICON 2013 and sharing their knowledge and expertise.

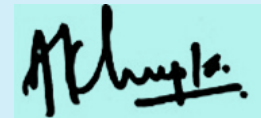

At this point, we are pleased to invite you to visit the fresh
Website www.apsicon2013mumbai.com

This alteration in our interface with you has been necessitated in view of certain technicalities beyond our honest control. While we regret the inconvenience to you all, we are sure that this will allay most of your queries with regards the Abstracts submission as well as the registration, travel and stay issues that were being encountered in the previous website. Further, if there are suggestions, we would be pleased to incorporate them if feasible.

Lastly, a word of caution. Large-scale construction work in the vicinity of the domestic airport has added to the inherent transport nightmares. It had also prevented parking of private vehicles / cars at the pick up areas around the terminal building. One can avail of the radio taxi and the prepaid cabs (highly recommended) at the airport on arrival. Though there are plenty of other public transport systems available, but these are heavily crowded. It may be at times impossible for you to even to gain entry in to a Mumbai BEST bus or a local train. We appreciate your understanding of this painful issue.

It is your conference. Your presence at this conference is important to us. We look forward to seeing you here. The "city which never sleeps", awaits you.
