Vadodara

From your President

At the outset, I thank you for electing me your President and giving me the opportunity to host the 47 Annual Conference of the Association of Plastic Surgeons of India (APSICON 2012). As chairperson of the organizing committee, I on my own behalf and on behalf of the organizing committee, extend you a cordial invitation to attend the conference. The Postgraduate Department of Plastic Surgery, Lucknow Plastic Surgery Club and the U.P. Chapter of APSI have come forward to host this annual mega event in the vibrant city of Lucknow – a city known for its scientific flavor, art, culture and culinary delights.

The theme of the conference has been chosen as Restore, Repair, Regenerate and Rejuvenate. Restore, what is missing – both in terms of form and function; Repair – what is abnormal or deformed, Regenerate – new tissue/tissues which are needed and rejuvenate to bring youthfulness. The above is the essence of holistic approach to Plastic Surgery and our specialty can be defined thus.

The scientific program committee is developing a rich and comprehensive program. The emphasis shall be to encourage discussions. The operative workshop shall be held in the state of art modular theatres of our newly built Centenary Hospital. Three theatres shall be run simultaneously and the emphasis shall be to demonstrate common plastic surgery procedures. There shall be something of every one's interest going on all the time.

For the accompanying person it is going to be a hectic and entertaining program – visit to the old and new Lucknow. Visit to Imambaras, the Residency (reminiscent of the muting of 1857), and participating in cookery classes, chikan work, make up, yoga lessons, hair styling etc. The organizing committee especially welcomes our Senior Members. Their participation is a favour to us. As a small gesture, we have decided not to charge registration fees from our members of more than 75 years of age. Children under the age of 7 years also avail free registration and children up to 12 years of age (along with one adult) will be given a complementary pass to one of the parks just across the road.

Lucknow the city boasts of many scientific institutions like the Industrial Toxicology Research Institute (ITRC), Central Drug Research Institute (CDRI), National Botanical Research Institute (NBRI), Central Institute of Aromatic Plants (CIMAP), Sugarcane Research Institute, Indian Institute of Management (IIM), to name a few. The conference would be held in the modern Scientific Convention Center of the prestigious King George's Medical College (now upgraded as C.S.M. Medical University). The college is completing 100 years of glory (1911-2011). The city is known for its art, culture and warmth. Lucknow is famous for its tehzeeb of 'Pahle Aap'. It is world over known for the-chikan work-hand embroidery. The Lucknow gharana of Kathak dance started here. Tunde Kawab and Kakori Kawabs are mouthwatering delicacies. Malai Makkan and Dusheri Mangoes are special to this place.

There is a lot to see around Lucknow as well. May be a day excursion to Ayodhya, few days trip to Jim Corbet forest or Nainital shall charge you. Visit to Varanasi, Allahabad (Sangam), Agra, Khajuraho, Dudhwa Forest can be pre or post fixed. You and your family will be our valued guest from the time you arrive at Lucknow. You shall be received at the airport and railway station to your respective places of stay. Come one and all, along with your family to Lucknow and feel like a 'Nawab'.
